

The True Impact of Community Development:

Fundación Esperanza de México's (FEM's) program involves so much more than houses. Through a comprehensive evaluation completed in December of 2012, FEM learned that participants benefited from improved friendships, health, values and more. Here are their responses:

